

SELECTING THE RIGHT PACKAGING PARTNER FOR SPECIALTY PHARMACY

When selecting a packaging provider in Specialty Pharmacy, it is crucial to work with a partner who understands the complexities of both URAC and ACHC Accreditation. Accreditation standards are stringent, and ensuring compliance requires in-depth knowledge and precision throughout the process. At MaxQ, we are committed to providing this expertise, enabling you to focus on delivering the best care to your patients.

MAXQ'S EXPERT SUPPORT: ACCREDITATION AND COMPLIANCE

At MaxQ, we are proud to have some of the most respected experts in Specialty Pharmacy Accreditation on our team. By partnering with us, you gain access to their extensive knowledge and guidance, free of charge. Our experts will work closely with your team to navigate the complex accreditation requirements, ensuring your packaging operations meet the highest standards.

We provide comprehensive support to maintain compliance with URAC and ACHC Standards, which includes:

- Qualification Testing: Designing and facilitating all required qualification tests for your packaging.
- Policy and Procedure Review: Reviewing and enhancing relevant policies and procedures to align with accreditation standards.
- Staff Training Materials: Assisting in creating training materials to educate your staff effectively.
- Auditing Mechanisms: Ensuring appropriate auditing mechanisms are in place as part of your Quality Program.

A PARTNERSHIP YOU CAN RELY ON

We value the partnerships we have built with specialty pharmacies across the country. Our commitment goes beyond providing packaging—we strive to be a true partner in helping your pharmacy thrive in every aspect, from patient care to operational efficiency. With MaxQ by your side, you can expect comprehensive support tailored to your needs.

HERE ARE SOME KEY WAYS WE CAN HELP SUPPORT YOUR PHARMACY:

- Safeguarding Patient Health: Through superior packaging performance, we help ensure the safe delivery of temperature-sensitive medications.
- Reducing Your Pharmacy's Carbon Footprint: Our sustainable packaging solutions are designed to help you reduce your environmental impact.
- URAC/ACHC Compliance: We provide hands-on support to simplify the accreditation process and maintain ongoing compliance.
- Lowering Packaging Costs: Optimize your packaging solutions to minimize costs without sacrificing quality.
- Reducing Distribution Costs: Our advanced packaging designs can dramatically cut down your distribution expenses.
